We'll take pleasure in showing the stock, and if it merits your patronage we'll be pleased to sell you. If not, we'll thank you for the visit.

John Carr, Ed. Halmer, Charles Brown, and Lafayette Buckley, were among yesterday's category of drunks and disorderlies.

Plate mill B at the Riverside went on yesterday, after being out eight weeks on account of putting in a new engine. This mill gives employment to 200 men, and they were eager to resume.

W. B. Johnson, known as "Steeple Jack," who was secured to regild the Cathedral cross, got very full yesterday, raising a disturbance near the Cathedral. Lieutenant Clemens arrested him.

W. H. Johnson, a former resident of this city, who removed to West Alexander four years ago, died at his home there on Tuesday afternoon. The funeral will take place from his late residence at 2 p. m. to-day. Deceased was well known in Wheeling.

They Surprised Him.

Last night at his home on South Eoff street, Frank Patterson was the victim of a surprise party, gotten up by a number of his friends in honor of the twenty-second anniversary of his birth. He has recently returned from Columbus, and the gathering was somewhat in the nature of a reunion. Dancing, cards and other amusements contributed to the evening's pleasure, and refreshments were liberally dispensed. Among those in attendance were a number of bricklayers, fellow workmen of Mr. Patterson's and in the course of the evening they presented him with a handsome set of tools. This was a feature of an enjoyable affair.

A BIG GATHERING.

Two Thousand Delegates will Attend the Convention of

FOURTH DISTRICT EPWORTH

League in this City Next May. Delegates Come From Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia and West Virginia—The Local Committees Are Arranging for Their Reception. A Series of Entertainments this Winter.

Very quietly and without the flourish of trumpets that usually accompanies such an undertaking, the Wheeling and West Virginia delegates to the last convention of the Fourth general conference district Epworth League convention, which was held in Baltimore, secured the 1898 gathering for this city. It is to be held in May, and the indications are that 2,000 delegates will be in attendance, coming from all over the territory embraced in the Fourth district, including Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia and West Virginia. The city of Baltimore alone promises to come to Wheeling with a delegation outnumbering the strength of the Epworthians in the entire state of West Virginia—but, of course, that is coming it a little too strong.

The committees of Wheeling Epworthians are now at work on the preliminaries and expect to have their programme outlined in a short time. Considerable money is required to entertain such a large number of people. Part of the fund has already been subscribed, and in order to make up the balance, the Epworthians have organized the Star lecture course, with six entertainments, running through the season, beginning October 4 and ending in February. The opening attraction is the well known Colonel George W. Bain, the Kentucky orator, who delivers one of his lectures at the Opera House on October 4. The next attraction is "The Lyric Ladies of Chicago," composed of six young ladies who furnish an excellent musical entertainment. Then comes Frank Beard, the chalk talker, December 2; Slayton's Jubilee Singers, December 16; the Original Swedish Quartette, January 11, and Bishop C. H. Fowler, on an evening in February that has not yet been selected. The latter is remembered locally through his recent appearance at the Moundsville camp-meeting, when he gave his eloquent address on Abraham Lincoln.

The entertainments are among the best to be had, and the purpose is one that will no doubt meet with the enthusiastic encouragement of the citizens of Wheeling. The tickets for the season have been placed at a very low figure, one dollar. They are being placed now and are meeting with a deservedly heavy sale.

Last Night's Fire.

The fire department south of the creek had a run about 7:30 o'clock last night, to the La Belle Iron works. Some mischievous boys had secured a number of empty cement barrels and piled them in a heap to the rear of the mill, and then set fire to them. The only loss was that of the barrels.

If you don't care what you pay, you can give a merchant tailor twice our prices for a made-to-measure suit that may not fit half as well as ours. Our Suits are designed by artists and made by skilled tailors. The seams are sewed with heavy silk thread, the goods are all sponged and shrunk before cutting.
